Sacrament of Holy Communion

The United Methodist Church welcomes all people who believe in Jesus Christ to the communion table. We use grape juice, not wine, to represent the blood of our Savior; gluten-free bread is served at the station on the far right of the sanctuary. When you come forward please present your cupped hands and you will be given a piece of bread to dip in the juice before eating it. If you wish to be served at your seat, a pastor will be glad to serve you where you are.
